Grand Knight's Letter

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I hope everyone is enjoying the new year and is sticking to their New Year's resolutions. It may seem hard, but it only gets better as time goes on. I myself have a New Year resolution, which is to have the Knights be more present at our parishes. Whether that is attend mass, be involved with the ministries, or be outside the doors with a booth for all to know who we are.

Our Council has been needing a stronger presence at our parishes, and now is the time to take action. I would like to see more Brothers at mass; I would like to see more interaction amongst the parishioners, so that the engagement can possibly turn into a recruitment; I would like for us to show our parishes what our Council of 65 years has to offer. The more we are present, the more we can recruit the more we receive support, and the more we become closer together with our parishes. Our Council would not be where it is at without our parishes. I will make it my duty to attend Mass at each parish. I will attend St. Christopher's Parish, then Sacred Heart Parish the following week. Hope to see many familiar faces.

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ, may our continuous work not go unnoticed and may we be humbled by the support from our communities and our parishes.

Trust in Him with all your heart, do not rely on your own understanding. Think of Him in all your ways, and he will guide you on the correct path.

Proverbs 3:5-6

Vivat Jesus!
Grand Knight,
Jacob Edward Van Olphen

KNIGHT OF THE MONTH

Brother Gilbert “Gunny” Gonzalez

This month's Knight of the Month goes out to a Brother Knight who is always present at our Council, and very well known amongst our Brothers. A Past Grand Knight of our Council, and I'm sure of much more. He voices his opinion no matter what the issue may be. He has been outspoken ever since I've met him. No matter what, he always does his best to be present where he can: Steak Fry, Fish Fry, and other events that our Council puts on. Hey may shuffle his feet, but he is quick with an answer on a Council matter. He always has good suggestions too for how to run the council; and I will take him up on his offer of inviting the State Officers to our Council for an appreciation dinner, before the end of the Colombian Year. It may have been a while since he has been up on the wall for Knight of the Month, but he no longer has to wait.

This month's Knight of the Month goes out to PGK Gilbert "Gunny" Gonzalez. Thank you Brother for your support and presence amongst our Brothers.

Grand Knight,
Jacob Edward van Olphen

Making a Difference for Life

Knights of Columbus insurance has been "Making a Difference for Life" for more than 120 years. Since our founding in 1882, our primary mission has been to protect families against the financial ruin caused by the death of the breadwinner. Today we do this, and help families secure their financial futures, through our top-rated portfolio of life insurance, long term care insurance and annuity products.

Our Evolution

When our organization began, in order to help each other, our members "passed the hat" to assist families of deceased members. Soon, however, this became impossible, as the number of our members grew.

Out of this simple process, we've evolved into a modern, dynamic insurance organization, and offer a wide variety of products to suit virtually everyone's needs.

Permanent Plans - Policy lasts as long as you live, premium stays the same.

Term Plans - Policy ends at end of specified term: renewable or convertible.

Annuities - Provides an income that is guaranteed for life.

Long Term Care - Provides funds for long-term, out-of-hospital care.

Presidents Day 2019

Presidents Day is an American holiday celebrated on the third Monday in February; Presidents Day 2019 occurs on Monday, February 18. Originally established in 1885 in recognition of President George Washington, the holiday became popularly known as Presidents Day after it was moved as part of 1971's Uniform Monday Holiday Act, an attempt to create more three-day weekends for the nation's workers. While several states still have individual holidays honoring the birthdays of Washington, Abraham Lincoln and other figures, Presidents Day is now popularly viewed as a day to celebrate all U.S. presidents, past and present.

Washington's Birthday

The story of Presidents Day date begins in 1800. Following the death of George Washington in 1799, his February 22 birthday became a perennial day of remembrance.

At the time, Washington was venerated as the most important figure in American history, and events like the 1832 centennial of his birth and the start of construction of the Washington Monument in 1848 were cause for national celebration.

While Washington's Birthday was an unofficial observance for most of the 1800s, it was not until the late 1870s that it became a federal holiday. Senator Steven Wallace Dorsey of Arkansas was the first to propose the measure, and in 1879 President Rutherford B. Hayes signed it into law.

The holiday initially only applied to the District of Columbia, but in 1885 it was expanded to the whole country. At the time, Washington's Birthday joined four other nationally recognized federal bank holidays—Christmas Day, New Year's Day, the Fourth of July and Thanksgiving—and was the first to celebrate the life of an individual American. Martin Luther King Jr. Day, signed into law in 1983, was the second.

Uniform Monday Holiday Act

The shift from Washington's Birthday to Presidents Day began in the late 1960s, when Congress proposed a measure known as the Uniform Monday Holiday Act. Championed by Senator Robert McClory of Illinois, this law sought to shift the celebration of several federal holidays from specific dates to a series of predetermined Mondays.

The proposed change was seen by many as a novel way to create more three-day weekends for the nation's workers, and it was believed that ensuring holidays always fell on the same weekday would reduce employee absenteeism. While some argued that shifting holidays from their original dates would cheapen their meaning, the bill also had widespread support from both the private sector and labor unions and was seen as a surefire way to bolster retail sales.

The Uniform Monday Holiday Act also included a provision to combine the celebration of Washington's Birthday with that of

Abraham Lincoln, which fell on February 12. Lincoln's Birthday had long been a state holiday in places like Illinois, and many supported joining the two days as a way of giving equal recognition to two of America's most famous statesmen.

McClory was among the measure's major proponents, and he even floated the idea of renaming the holiday Presidents Day. This proved to be a point of contention for lawmakers from George Washington's home state of Virginia, and the proposal was eventually dropped.

Nevertheless, the main piece of the Uniform Monday Holiday Act passed in 1968 and officially took effect in 1971 following an executive order from President Richard M. Nixon. Washington's Birthday was then shifted from the fixed date of February 22 to the third Monday of February. Columbus Day, Memorial Day and Veterans Day were also moved from their traditionally designated dates. (As a result of widespread criticism, in 1980 Veterans' Day was returned to its original November 11 date.)

Did you know? President's Day never falls on the actual birthday of any American president. Four chief executives—George Washington, William Henry Harrison, Abraham Lincoln and Ronald Reagan—were born in February, but their birthdays all come either too early or late to coincide with Presidents Day, which is always celebrated on the third Monday of the month.

Presidents Day Transformed

While Nixon's order plainly called the newly placed holiday Washington's Birthday, it was not long before the shift to Presidents Day began.

The move away from February 22 led many to believe that the new date was intended to honor both Washington and Lincoln, as it now fell between their two birthdays. Marketers soon jumped at the opportunity to play up the three-day weekend with sales, and "Presidents Day" bargains were advertised at stores around the country.

By the mid-1980s, Washington's Birthday was known to many Americans as Presidents Day. This shift had solidified in the early 2000s, by which time as many as half the 50 states had changed the holiday's name to Presidents Day on their calendars.

Some states have even chosen to customize the holiday by adding new figures to the celebration. Arkansas, for instance, celebrates Washington as well as civil rights activist Daisy Gatson Bates. Alabama, meanwhile, uses Presidents Day to commemorate Washington and Thomas Jefferson (who was born in April).

Washington and Lincoln still remain the two most recognized leaders, but Presidents Day is now popularly seen as a day to recognize the lives and achievements of all of America's chief executives. Some lawmakers have objected to this view, arguing that grouping George Washington and Abraham Lincoln together with less successful presidents minimizes their legacies.

Congressional measures to restore Washington and Lincoln's individual birthdays were proposed during the early 2000s, but all failed to gain much attention. For its part, the federal government has held fast to the original incarnation of the holiday as a celebration of the country's first president. The third Monday in February is still listed on official calendars as Washington's Birthday.

Presidents Day Celebrations and Traditions

Like Independence Day, Presidents Day is traditionally viewed as a time of patriotic celebration and remembrance. In its original incarnation as Washington's Birthday, the holiday gained special meaning during the difficulties of the Great Depression, when portraits of George Washington often graced the front pages of newspapers and magazines every February 22.

In 1932, the date was used to reinstate the Purple Heart, a military decoration originally created by George Washington to honor soldiers killed or wounded while serving in the armed forces. Patriotic groups and the Boy Scouts of America also held celebrations on the day, and in 1938 some 5,000 people attended mass at Saint Patrick's Cathedral in New York City in honor of Washington.

In its modern form, Presidents Day is used by many patriotic and historical groups as a date for staging celebrations, reenactments and other events. A number of states also require that their public schools spend the days leading up to Presidents Day teaching students about the accomplishments of the presidents, often with a focus on the lives of Washington and Lincoln.
