Grand Knight's Letter

This month in February we were honored once again to have the presence of Bishop David O'Connell at our Sunday mass for the disabled guests. Our Council does a great job at housing as well as providing a safe environment each Sunday on a regular basis. The mass is a true blessing for those who want to hear the Gospel and are in need of accessibility. Anyone and everyone is welcome to attend at 10 AM every Sunday.

February 4, we were all gathered here at the hall celebrating and cheering on our favorite team during the Super Bowl game. Special thanks goes out to our Past Grand Knight Larry Dietz and wife Tina Dietz, for working so hard for many months collecting all the donations that were used for all the raffle prizes. I also wanted to thank the Ladies for making all the gift baskets for door prizes and donating all the yummy desserts. This year we were able to view the game on a huge blowup screen on the center stage. Thanks to Past Grand Knight Gene Hays Jr and Past Grand Knight Andy Ruiz - it was like being at the game - live! The food was all prepared by myself, the Grand Knight, with much help in the kitchen as always from our Deputy Grand Knight Jacob Van Olphen, and Angel Luna, I don't know what I would do without these two. Thank you to Past Grand Knight James Hathaway for helping out all around and keeping our guests safe at the bar. I appreciate Brother Steve Lange putting in his time collecting all the admissions at the door. I believe we all had a great time and congratulations to all the Eagle fans out there - hope to see you all here again next year!

Friday February 15 and 22nd we had our annual Fish Fry for Lent. Thank you to all my Brothers for preparing and cooking all the delicious dinners to our guests, and for the Ladies, I thank you for all your help for setting up and donating all the desserts. Our fish fry will continue for the entire month of March, doors open at 5 PM to 8 PM. Bring the family and your friends, come on down and join us for a delicious fish dinner!

Last event in February was our Ladies' Bunco on February 25. We all had a great time, and the food was fantastic - all the Italian food you can eat. Thank you to all that cooked and donated. Congratulations to the big winners. Just a reminder we will continue to have bunco every third Sunday of the month so put it on your calendars and bring your friends. Thank you again Ladies for bringing this game back to our counsel events.

To all my Brothers and Sisters, please say a special prayer and keep in your hearts for the Jancan family. Just recently they lost their brother, Christopher. Christopher was also a Past Grand Knight many years ago for the Irwindale council and a special Brother to all us Knights. Once, again I appreciate the help from all my Brothers and our Ladies here at our Council. Always remember "We do this because this is who we are and what we do best!"

God bless you all, Grand Knight

Making a Difference for Life

Knights of Columbus insurance has been "Making a Difference for Life" for more than 120 years. Since our founding in 1882, our primary mission has been to protect families against the financial ruin caused by the death of the breadwinner. Today we do this, and help families secure their financial futures, through our top-rated portfolio of life insurance, long term care insurance and annuity products.

Our Evolution

When our organization began, in order to help each other, our members "passed the hat" to assist families of deceased members. Soon, however, this became impossible, as the number of our members grew.

Out of this simple process, we've evolved into a modern, dynamic insurance organization, and offer a wide variety of products to suit virtually everyone's needs.

Permanent Plans - Policy lasts as long as you live, premium stays the same.

Term Plans - Policy ends at end of specified term: renewable or convertible.

Annuities - Provides an income that is guaranteed for life.

Long Term Care - Provides funds for long-term, out-of-hospital care.

KNIGHT OF THE MONTH

In memory of a fallen brother, and past Grand Knight, Christopher Jancan.

In memory of our fallen brother Christopher Jancan.

Chris went home to be with the Lord on February 6th 2018 at the age of 61 after a long battle of being ill.

Chris grew up attending Our Lady of Guadalupe church in Irwindale and alongside his parents and siblings became very involved with the Verona Missionary League now known as The Comboni Missionaries and the Knights of Columbus where Chris became Grand Knight of the Irwindale council #5650 in 1984..

Chris was a servant and throughout his life volunteered countless hours helping in any way he could..For many years you would find him in charge of the grill at all the fundraiser breakfasts at the Fr.McGuire hall..Wherever help was needed Chris was the first one there..

Unfortunately in the year 2000 Chris suffered his first of many strokes and with each one his health declined but his faith always remained strong!

Chris was preceded in death by his Mom and his Dad, who also served as a Grand Knight, 2 brothers and a sister..He is survived by 2 sisters and 1 brother and many nieces and nephews who all adored him.

May he rest in Peace: 11/3/56 - 02/06/18

Grand Knight,

History of Lent

FR. WILLIAM SAUNDERS

What are the origins of Lent? Did the Church always have this time before Easter?

Lent is a special time of prayer, penance, sacrifice and good works in preparation of the celebration of Easter. In the desire to renew the liturgical practices of the Church, The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy of Vatican Council II stated, "The two elements which are especially characteristic of Lent — the recalling of baptism or the preparation for it, and penance — should be given greater emphasis in the liturgy and in liturgical catechesis. It is by means of them that the Church prepares the faithful for the celebration of Easter, while they hear God's word more frequently and devote more time to prayer" (no. 109). The word Lent itself is derived from the Anglo-Saxon words lencten, meaning "Spring," and lenctentid, which literally means not only "Springtide" but also was the word for "March," the month in which the majority of Lent falls.

Since the earliest times of the Church, there is evidence of some kind of Lenten preparation for Easter. For instance, St. Irenaeus (d. 203) wrote to Pope St. Victor I, commenting on the celebration of Easter and the differences between practices in the East and the West: "The dispute is not only about the day, but also about the actual character of the fast. Some think that they ought to fast for one day, some for two, others for still more; some make their 'day' last 40 hours on end. Such variation in the observance did not originate in our own day, but very much earlier, in the time of our forefathers" (Eusebius, History of the Church, V, 24). When Rufinus translated this passage from Greek into Latin, the punctuation made between "40" and "hours" made the meaning to appear to be "40 days, twenty-four hours a day." The importance of the passage, nevertheless, remains that since the time of "our forefathers" — always an expression for the apostles — a 40-day period of Lenten preparation existed. However, the actual practices and duration of Lent were still not homogenous throughout the Church.

Lent becomes more regularized after the legalization of Christianity in A.D. 313. The Council of Nicea (325), in its disciplinary canons, noted that two provincial synods should be held each year, "one before the 40 days of Lent." St. Athanasius (d. 373) in this "Festal Letters" implored his congregation to make a 40-day fast prior to the more intense fasting of Holy Week. St. Cyril of Jerusalem (d. 386) in his Catechetical Lectures, which are the paradigm for our current RCIA programs, had 18 pre-baptismal instructions given to the catechumens during Lent. St. Cyril of Alexandria (d. 444) in his series of "Festal Letters" also noted the practices and duration of Lent, emphasizing the 40-day period of fasting. Finally, Pope St. Leo (d. 461) preached that the faithful must "fulfill with their fasts the Apostolic institution of the 40 days," again noting the apostolic origins of Lent. One can safely conclude that by the end of the fourth century, the 40-day period of Easter preparation known as Lent existed, and that prayer and fasting constituted its primary spiritual exercises.

Of course, the number "40" has always had special spiritual significance regarding preparation. On Mount Sinai, preparing to receive the Ten Commandments, "Moses stayed there with the Lord for 40 days and 40 nights, without eating any food or drinking any water" (Ex 34:28). Elijah walked "40 days and 40 nights" to the mountain of the Lord, Mount Horeb (another name for Sinai) (1 Kgs 19:8). Most importantly, Jesus fasted and prayed for "40 days and 40 nights" in the desert before He began His public ministry (Mt 4:2).

Once the 40 days of Lent were established, the next development concerned how much fasting was to be done. In Jerusalem, for instance, people fasted for 40 days, Monday through Friday, but not on Saturday or Sunday, thereby making Lent last for eight weeks. In Rome and in the West, people fasted for six weeks, Monday through Saturday, thereby making Lent last for six weeks. Eventually, the practice prevailed of fasting for six days a week over the course of six weeks, and Ash Wednesday was instituted to bring the number of fast days before Easter to 40. The rules of fasting varied. First, some areas of the Church abstained from all forms of meat and animal products, while others made exceptions for food like fish. For example, Pope St. Gregory (d. 604), writing to St. Augustine of Canterbury, issued the following rule: "We abstain from flesh, meat, and from all things that come from flesh, as milk, cheese and eggs."

Second, the general rule was for a person to have one meal a day, in the evening or at 3 p.m.

These Lenten fasting rules also evolved. Eventually, a smaller repast was allowed during the day to keep up one's strength from manual labor. Eating fish was allowed, and later eating meat was also allowed through the week except on Ash Wednesday and Friday. Dispensations were given for eating dairy products if a pious work was performed, and eventually this rule was relaxed totally. (However, the abstinence from even dairy products led to the practice of blessing Easter eggs and eating pancakes on Shrove Tuesday, the day before Ash Wednesday.)

Over the years, modifications have been made to the Lenten observances, making our practices not only simple but also easy. Ash Wednesday still marks the beginning of Lent, which lasts for 40 days, not including Sundays. The present fasting and abstinence laws are very simple: On Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, the faithful fast (having only one full meal a day and smaller snacks to keep up one's strength) and abstain from meat; on the other Fridays of Lent, the faithful abstain from meat. People are still encouraged "to give up something" for Lent as a sacrifice. (An interesting note is that technically on Sundays and solemnities like St. Joseph's Day (March 19) and the Annunciation (March 25), one is exempt and can partake of whatever has been offered up for Lent.

Nevertheless, I was always taught, "If you gave something up for the Lord, tough it out. Don't act like a Pharisee looking for a loophole." Moreover, an emphasis must be placed on performing spiritual works, like attending the Stations of the Cross, attending Mass, making a weekly holy hour before the Blessed Sacrament, taking time for personal prayer and spiritual reading and most especially making a good confession and receiving sacramental absolution. Although the practices may have evolved over the centuries, the focus remains the same: to repent of sin, to renew our faith and to prepare to celebrate joyfully the mysteries of our salvation.

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

A small request from the hearts of worried parents

On behalf of the Delgado Family, we ask that you keep our daughter, Crista Delgado Nelson, in your prayers. She, along with our grandchildren, our going through a very difficult time in their lives. God gave us three beautiful ladies – Crista, Dolores, Jacquie and our son, Richard – who all have families of their own. Life has never been easy, but keeping our faith gives us strength. So please, for a moment, find it in your heart to say a little prayer for our daughter, Crista.

God Bless.
